This book details all seven clauses of Section 39 of the Act, explains the Act and describes the reliefs that can be sought. It includes actual CSOS Adjudication transcripts as reference and provides comment on those dispute topics in preparation for any dispute. Each case is summarised, each clause explained, and expert commentary is supplied throughout in everyday plain English. The book further offers cross-references to all topics for the reader's quick access to relevant information

"... This book targets everyone in a dispute process, from home owner to Trustee to Body Corporate Executive to Managing Agent - even legal entities - EVERYONE that needs to know what to expect from a dispute resolution. From similar samples you can gain valuable insight as to the possible outcome for a specific topic under specific circumstances..." Fred Gatlin

"... By using actual transcripts from previous hearings, this book gave me the confidence to apply my circumstances, and gave me the support in getting what I knew was right..." Dr R Phiri

"... If you are involved in Sectional Title control in ANY way.... you should read this before you engage in another meeting, or seek resolution for another dispute... and make sure of the facts the SAO way! ..." Brett Nylstryk
